DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-14, 18-31, and 41 are allowed.
2. The following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance:

In interpreting the claims, in light of the specification and the Applicant's amendments filed February 2nd, 2006, the Examiner finds the claimed invention to be patentably distinct from the prior art of record. The prior art does not teach all of the limitations of the independent claims in combination with the other elements presented.

The prior art of record teaches a network storage system with hot swappable modular components (Papa, Summary). Other prior art in the same field teaches a method of centralizing local storage for networked workstations through a virtual storage system that may be implemented in such a device (Hoese, Summary). Additionally, combinable prior art in the field teaches a testing method which loops a secondary set of network ports back to a controller to enable the controller to diagnostically test operations and connectivity through a storage device backplane using a set of test vectors (Story, column 3, lines 28-39 and Summary, wherein a test vector is looped back through a fibre system for diagnostic testing).

However, as per Applicant's claimed invention, the prior art fails to teach a similar network data storage system using test vectors, wherein a controller operates as a front-end interface between a host node and a cache to perform data moving operations when the test loop is inactive, using a method that differs from standard disk adapter operations.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
